DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-22 are drawn to a method for detecting an analyte A wherein R2 is an analyte A specific binding partner which saturates analyte A-binding sites at a higher analyte A concentration than the analyte A specific binding partners wherein L1-dependent measurement signal is determined at different times from L2 dependent measurement signal or L1 plus L2 dependent measurement signal classified in 435 class, subclass 7.1.
  - II. Claims 1-22 are drawn to a method for detecting an analyte A wherein R2 is an analyte A specific binding partner which saturates analyte A-binding sites at a higher analyte A concentration than the analyte A specific binding partners, determining L1-dependent measurement signal using different measurement method than used to determine the L2 dependent measurement signal or the L1 plus L2 dependent measurement signal, classified in class 435, subclass 4.
  - III. Claims 23-31 are drawn to a kit, classified in class 436 subclass 808.

Art Unit: 1641

2. The inventions I and II are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons: The inventions are materially distinct methods which differ at least in objectives, method steps, reagents and/or dosages and/ or schedules used, response variables, and criteria for success.

3. Inventions I and III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product as claimed be used in the method of invention II.

4. Inventions II and III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the kit as claimed can be used in the method of invention I.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper. Please note that classifications in the restriction are illustrative only and do not represent all the classes and subclasses which must be searched for each invention; nor is the search limited to issued US patents, but rather includes foreign patents and applications as well as literature searches, therefore restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. A telephone call was made to Mr. Hartmann on August 12, 2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
